

Outreach Worker

Esprit Place Family Resource Centre

Location: Parry Sound

Full-time Contract, 35 hours per week, Monday to Friday, ending August 29, 2025

Rate of Pay: $23.49/hour (as per Collective Agreement)

Employment with the District of Parry Sound Social Services Administration Board offers an opportunity to make a positive contribution to our community. Providing caring human services, we are a forward-thinking organization focused on continuous improvement, employee growth and development, and providing exceptional service.

We are seeking an Outreach Worker to provide counseling to women in the community who are fleeing abuse or are in crisis. This position requires a mature, responsible person who can respond to sensitive issues and represent Esprit Place Family Resource Centre and the DSSAB in the community and at public events. The Outreach Worker must also have a good understanding of the court system and be able to actively assist women through this process.

Qualifications (partial list)

- 2-year college diploma in Human Services or related field.
- Comfortable with public speaking and community presentations.
- Knowledge of district-wide services for women, children, and families.
- Knowledge and understanding of all legislation relevant to the position.
- Thorough knowledge of the gender analysis of violence against women, as well as related issues that impact women and children.
- Ability to travel throughout the District as required.

Essential Duties

- Develop and offer ongoing group work or individual support sessions for women and children exposed to violence.
- Maintain active collaborative relationships with community partners, including educational awareness and presentation opportunities.
- Data collection, record keeping, and documentation.

We are proud to offer the following to our contract employees:

OMERS Pension Plan, Paid time off, Employee Assistance Program, and Professional Development
